

Dr Andrew Dunn, MNZM, ED

Andrew is a part time family physician, convenor of Professional Conduct Committees, deputy chairman of Medic Alert (NZ), Board member of Medicus and has been a member of Angel HQ since 2009.

He retired from the New Zealand Defence Force (NZDF) after 20 years' service in 2016.

Military roles included Health Advisor for all NZDF deployed missions, Director of Army health, Chairperson of the Five Nations Medical Intelligence Committee (2005), New Zealand's representative on the Five Nations Health Interoperability Committee (2002 -2012) and commander on the NZ Combat Hospital in East Timor (2000).

He holds a post graduate diploma in Aviation Medicine with an interest in the interface between humans and machines and is also on the board of Seen Safety.